Every ounce matters when the go-far hunter packs the kit for a backcountry adventure chasing big game. This lightweight hunting knife comes with CPM-CruWear® steel with SelectEdge® application, giving it razor-sharp edge. Add the orange Cerakote® finish for high vis, the carbon fiber for uncompromised lightweight and you get the perfect hunting knife for deep backcountry adventures when you'll be field dressing elk, caribou, or moose. Made in the USA.
